

Industry Best Practices Review

Data insights specific to your industry

Get a regular review of your workforce management solution with industry-specific recommendations

As a UKG Pro Workforce Management™ customer, you're eligible to receive an Industry Best Practices Review. This valuable service reviews the data in your workforce management solution and provides you with industry-specific recommendations regarding your workforce along with several metrics, including system use, compliance risks, and opportunities for increased productivity and efficiency.

Key benefits

Get detailed recommendations about your data as it pertains to your industry

Receive best practices about workforce insights that meet the needs of your business

Benefit from expert guidance on the phases of workforce management maturity as it relates to your business model and key drivers

Review your workforce management usage with a thorough analysis of your data

Examine your data to see where potential process improvements can be made

Frequently Asked Questions

- How do I request a review? You can work with your Executive Relationship Manager to schedule a review at a time that works for you.
- How often can I receive an Industry Best Practices Review? UKG offers this service every year.
- How long does the Industry Best Practices Review take to complete? Depending upon the data to be discussed, the review may last up to two hours.
- Who should attend an Industry Best Practices Review? The Industry Best Practices Review is most valuable with an audience of key business stakeholders, including your executive team and super administrators.

Don't wait to get a personalized Industry Best Practices Review for your organization! Contact your Executive Relationship Manager to schedule a time to get started.