

Benchmarking

Gathering industry standards and comparing the data to your own organization can be an overwhelming task, but ensuring you're treating your people fairly and staying competitive is vital to attracting and retaining top talent. UKG Ready® Benchmarking provides you on-demand access to reliable, validated benchmarking data that automatically takes your company's size, industry, and location into consideration, and displays how you compare to similar businesses. By utilizing this data, you'll be able to confidently make informed decisions and continue to create a place where people want to work.

Compensation

Ensure you're paying your people fairly and staying competitive with industry standards by confidently evaluating how you compensate each position in your organization.

Hiring & Turnover Rates

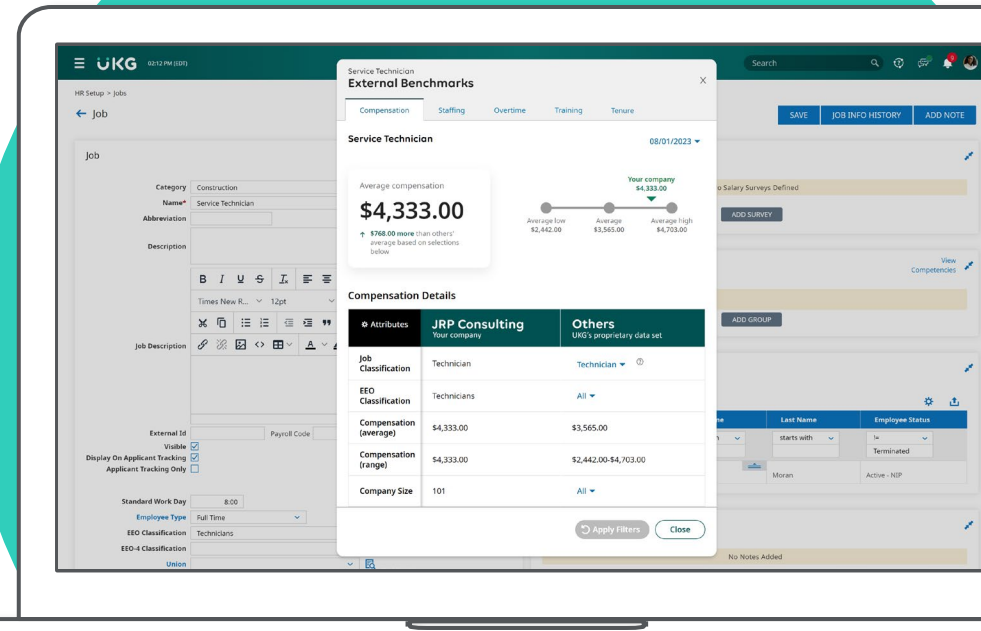

Gain vital insights into your organization's time-to-hire and retention rates, allowing you to identify areas of opportunity and make changes to your business practices to better attract and retain top talent.

Training

Explore how your training processes compare to other organizations so that you can make improvements to your onboarding experience and set your newest employees up for success.

Overtime

Avoid burnout and ensure you're allocating work fairly across your organization by comparing the amount of overtime logged by your people to industry standards.
