

UKG™ (Ultimate Kronos Group) helps your organization deliver a better, more connected work experience for your people. UKG for Corrections provides a unified workforce management solution — time and attendance, optimized scheduling, absence management, and more — enabling you to control overtime costs, create optimized 24/7 schedules, send rapid notifications, and minimize compliance risk. Providing powerful automated tools and real-time visibility into the workforce, the solution streamlines administrative tasks and supports informed decision making so you can focus on operating your facility safely and effectively.

CRITICAL BUSINESS ISSUES

Manage employee absenteeism

UKG for Corrections automates application of attendance and leave policies — no matter how complex — for more effective absence management. Automated tools and a centralized rules engine help you enforce rules consistently, control labor costs, and minimize the risk and productivity impact associated with employee absences.

Optimize staff scheduling

For correctional facilities, scheduling can be a daunting, time-consuming task that must take into account time-off requests, employee skills and certifications, compliance requirements, and more. UKG for Corrections optimizes the scheduling, communication, and deployment of corrections officers and other personnel to help ensure adequate coverage and staff safety.

Make data-driven decisions

With UKG for Corrections, built-in reporting provides instant visibility into workforce trends and outliers. These insights help managers boost productivity, maintain predictable labor expenses, stay within budget, and identify opportunities for innovation and growth.

Track time and attendance

UKG for Corrections automatically applies work and pay rules — consistently and accurately — to reduce payroll errors, buddy punching, and unplanned overtime that can send labor costs soaring. The solution tracks and enforces labor laws and union rules to reduce noncompliance. Plus, it streamlines administrative tasks so your people have more time to focus on value-added activities.

UKG for Corrections helps correctional facilities reduce costs, minimize compliance risk, improve employee productivity and engagement, and create better, more connected work experiences. Providing powerful, intelligent automation, real-time visibility, and intuitive mobile tools, this unified solution simplifies and streamlines workforce management tasks to help you run a safe, cost-effective facility where your people feel empowered to do their best work.

The automation of scheduling, hiring, overtime, and approving leave requests with UKG TeleStaff™ has saved our command officers a tremendous amount of time that can now be dedicated to crisis incident management, supervision of personnel, and thorough review of reports. Even with complex union rules for hiring overtime positions, we automated that process completely in all divisions.
