

HR Compliance Assist

It's challenging to not only access insights on international data protection laws and record-keeping, but also easily understand how the law applies to the employee data that HR teams collect, especially as each country has its own laws.

UKG believes in simplifying complexities for HR and providing compliance management assistance. HR Compliance Assist within UKG Pro™ HR Service Delivery (HRSD) is an online knowledge-base and alert service that enables customers to easily navigate complex rules and regulations and increase compliance agility.

Meet Required Regulations

UKG Pro HRSD customers can further improve their document management practices using HR Compliance Assist to address some of the most complex compliance regulations, such as:

- GDPR, California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA), and other data privacy regulations
- HR document retention requirements

Act Globally

With HR Compliance Assist, HR teams can stay up-to-date and knowledgeable regarding data privacy and compliance requirements wherever their business operates.

HR Compliance Assist provides insight on regulations and requirements in over 40 countries, including: Argentina, Australia, Belgium, Canada, Colombia, China, Germany, India, Israel, Italy, Japan, Mexico, New Zealand, Romania, Russia, South Africa, South Korea, UAE, UK, and US.

Increase Efficiencies

Leveraging expert insights, downloadable summary charts, quarterly newsletters, and an expanding list of covered countries, HR teams can be confident in their compliance measures and remove the challenges that come with HR data management.

- Quickly learn about key employee data management regulations
- Decrease compliance risks and learn about upcoming laws
- Increase collaboration with HR, IT, and in-house legal teams

Many regulations are complex and can be subject to differing or changing legal interpretations. UKG cannot provide legal advice.

Connect with us online @UKG.com