

readyConnect

A common challenge that many roles across an organisation face is balancing day-to-day tasks with major milestone activities and finding ways to improve on those over time.

The UKG Ready™ solution intelligently recognises organisational roles and guides you through the activities most important to your job. Our UKG readyConnect™ panel anticipates your needs so you never miss a beat.

Role-Based Resources

The readyConnect panel tailors the information it serves up based on your role, ensuring the content provided is always relevant to your responsibilities:

- HR professionals can quickly and consistently manage people processes
- Payroll administrators get tips to make pay cycles run smoothly
- Managers can efficiently handle scheduling and approvals
- Employees get help with repeated processes

Anticipating Activity Cycles

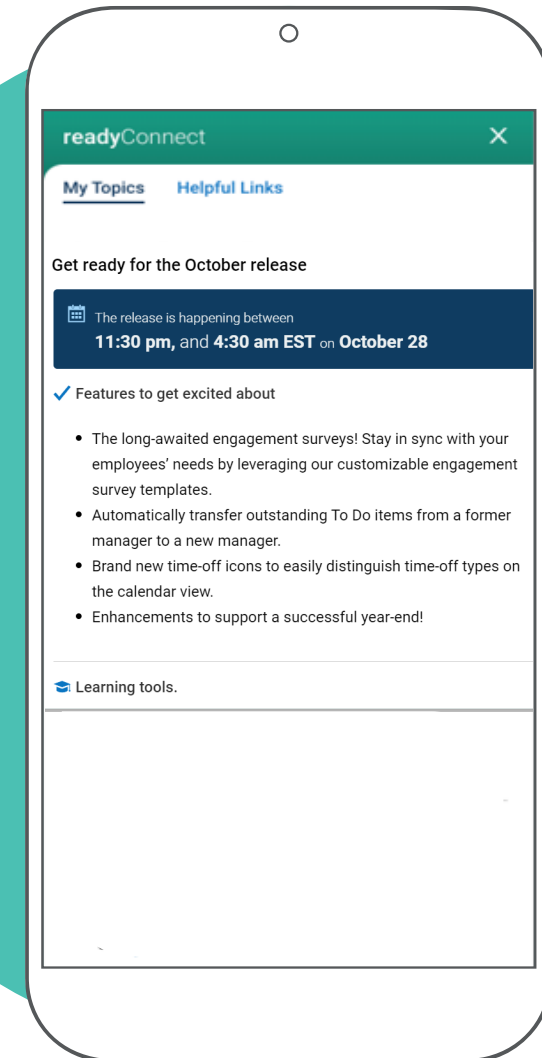

The Ready solution remembers the cycles of activity at your organisation and proactively displays important data, best practices, and process steps in the readyConnect panel so you're prepared ahead of time:

- Get ongoing updates about events that affect your organisation like COVID-19
- Communicate payroll standards and provide checklists for key pay tasks

Connections to Guidance and Training

With the readyConnect panel, the resources you need to succeed in your day-to-day and build winning people strategies are always in reach:

- Product training relevant to the process you're trying to complete
- Product documentation related to the area you're exploring
- Easy access to the UKG Community for insights from fellow customers
- Proactive personalised recommendations based on your role and solutions
